

Secure Admission to Fully Funded Ph.D. Program and receive the KAUST Fellowship!

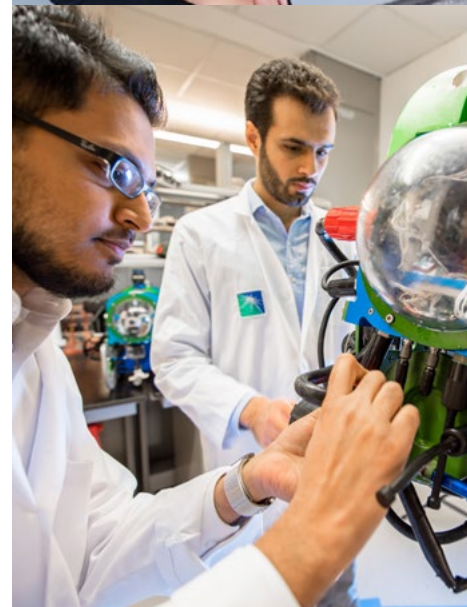

COVID-19 has impacted the future of many talented students who have been admitted to top ranked graduate schools to pursue their Ph.D., but are now experiencing a disruption because of visa issuance or offers have been rescinded. If this is your current circumstance and you're looking for an opportunity to begin your Ph.D. career in August 2020, we invite you to join our international research environment at KAUST.

To begin the process, we will need the following documents to use for preliminary screening for the KAUST Fellowship admissions offer:

- ✓ Academic Transcripts in English;
- ✓ CV;
- ✓ Ph.D. offer of admission for 2020-21 at a top ranked University

Upload the above documents and complete the fields in this secure FORM, we will quickly respond to help you navigate through the process.

Our full-time Ph.D. programs cover 16-degree programs in science and engineering and English is our language of instruction. All admitted students receive a competitive KAUST Fellowship which covers full-tuition, health benefits, on-campus housing and a monthly stipend to complete your studies.
